

South Georgia Classic Car Club
Constitution and By-Laws

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of the organization shall be the South Georgia Classic Car Club.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

This shall be a non-profit organization, its purpose being the restoration, preservation and enjoyment of special interest automobiles with primary emphasis being placed on vehicles of the 1950's and 1960's.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

Membership shall be open to persons with a genuine interest in classic and special interest automobiles and who are actively seeking ownership of said vehicles. Enrollment will require an annual membership fee which is to be set by a majority vote of the membership. The family of each member shall fall under his/her membership if they reside in the same household.

ARTICLE IV - OFFICERS

The officers of this organization shall consist of a President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Any member in good standing shall be eligible to hold one of the offices. The officers of this organization shall be elected annually by the membership of this same organization and they shall serve for a period of one (1) year. Any officer may serve two or more consecutive terms if he/she is re-elected annually to do so. Any officer may be elected or removed from office by a majority vote of the membership.

The PRESIDENT shall be the chief officer of this organization, and shall preside at all meetings of its membership. The President shall supervise all affairs of the organization.

The FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT shall act as the President of this organization when and if the office becomes vacant. He shall finish out the un-expired term of the previous President until a meeting at which the membership elects a successor. The First Vice-President shall head committees and report of their performance as directed by the President.

The SECOND VICE-PRESIDENT shall act as the First Vice-President when and if the office becomes vacant. The Second Vice-President shall assist the President and First Vice-President as they direct.

The SECRETARY shall record all the proceedings of this organization and shall be empowered to certify jointly with the President as to such proceedings. The Secretary shall also handle all correspondence and maintain an attendance record for the organization.

The TREASURER shall have custody of all the funds and securities of the organization and shall keep records belonging to the association with full and accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements; He/she shall deposit all moneys, securities and other valuable effects in the name of the organization in such depositories as may be designated for that purpose by the membership. He/she shall disburse the funds of the organization as may be directed by a majority of the officers and/or membership. The officers will not be restricted, however, in those ordinary and customary expenditures in the recognized day to day operation of the club, that is, insurance for club functions, expenses with connection with the annual show and the mail show. Any expenses which are not ordinary or customary and are in excess of $250.00 shall be voted on by the entire membership. The Treasurer shall take proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the officers and membership at the regular monthly meetings, and whenever requested by them, an account of his/her transactions as treasurer of the financial condition of the association.

ARTICLE V - ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Each October a committee composed of the officers of the current year and all past presidents shall seek, receive, and consider nominations for officers to serve during the upcoming year. Candidates nominated will be contacted by the committee to determine which candidates will serve. The nominating committee will present the slate of candidates at the December meeting and where there exist two or more candidates for an office, that office will be voted on by the general membership via a printed ballot. The immediate past president will chair this committee.

ARTICLE VI - RESIGNATION AND EXPULSION

Any officer or member may resign by written notice to the Secretary or Treasurer. His/her resignation shall become effective upon receipt and upon payment of any and all indebtednesses due the organization. Expulsion and/or other disciplinary measures taken with regard to failure to pay dues, fees, infraction of the organization rules and regulations, and/or other causes shall be determined by the majority of the voting members and after the member(s), under action, shall have been given written notice at his/her last known address of his/her right to submit his/her position to the voting membership.

ARTICLE VII - MEETINGS

The monthly meeting of the organization shall be held on the first Tuesday of each month. The location of said meeting shall be determined by a majority vote of the membership. Special meetings may be called at the discretion of the President and/or at the request of five (5) or more members.

ARTICLE VIII - AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

Any member, in good standing, may propose by written instrument to the officers of the organization, changes, additions, deletions, nonconformities, amendments, and/or corrections that need to be made in or to the Constitution and By-Laws. The written proposal(s) shall then be submitted to the voting membership. If said proposal passes by a plurality of the votes then cast, after discussion, said proposal(s) then shall be submitted to the entire membership.

AMENDEMENT TO BY-LAWS

Meeting of November 1994 - approved amendments

CLUB POLICE CAR: Usage of the South Georgia Classic Car Club (SGCCC) Police Car will be for SGCCC activities and those activities so designated by the club President as that of supporting community relations.
